

Joshua Hinkle

5033 S. Links Cir.
Suffolk, VA 23435
(757) 951-7039
Jhink004@odu.edu

Objective

To obtain admittance into the Officer Candidate School for the United States Marine Corps

Education

Old Dominion University, Norfolk, VA
Candidate for Bachelor of Arts, May 2014
Major 1: English
Major 2: Asian Studies

International Ministerial Institute, Burnet, TX
Certificate of Completion - Biblical Studies, November 2010

Experience

Senior Counselor, YMCA Camp Silver Beach, Jamesville, VA
May-Aug 2012

Provides instruction and safety knowledge to camp participants for power-boating activities.
Teaches the associated knowledge and skills and assists campers in achieving activity or lesson goals.

Oversees and cares for a group of children.

Lives with the children and is responsible for the general welfare of their group of campers.

Lead the campers to activities throughout the day and participate with them in camp activities as required.

Acquires OUPV power-boating license, CPR/First Aid training.

Team Member, Chic-Fil-A, Suffolk, VA

Dec 2010-Apr 2012

Display excellent customer service and courtesy.

Utilize their knowledge of positional skills, uphold and apply the company's health and safety guidelines.

Follow all company policies and operational procedures.

Provide quality products and services while advocating a safe and clean environment to make sure that one hundred percent customer satisfaction is being provided.

Have strong and highly efficient customer service skills and a positive attitude towards everything